Who is providing this notice?

State Restoration Services, Inc.

What we do

How does State Restoration Services, Inc. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does State Restoration Services, Inc. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or give us your income information
- give us your wage statements or provide account information
- provide employment information. We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
